

Submission – New Healthcare Facilities Programme Review – Anonymous 2

I feel it is time for things to move and action rather than more debates and discussions. For people working in the hospital and the public they deserve a hospital fit for purpose and designed to deliver health care in the 21st century.