1) Name and brief description of the proposed decision The subject of your CRIA may be a proposed law, policy or proposition and in accordance with the Law is referred to in this template as the ‘decision’ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What is the problem or issue the decision is trying to address? • Do children experience this problem differently from adults?
The decision is to amend Proposed Budget (Government Plan) 2025-2028(P/51/2024): Ninth Amendment by amending paragraphs (b) and (c) of the Amendment to align appropriately to the Sustainable Finance Action Plan. The Amendment seeks to allocate funds assigned to the competitiveness agenda by re-assigning these funds to the sustainable finance action plan and the transition to net-zero.
2) Which groups of children and young people are likely to be affected? Groups of children could include early years, primary or secondary education; young adults; children with additional learning needs; disabled children; children living in poverty; children from particular ethnic backgrounds; migrants; refugees; care experienced children and LGBTQ+ children
This decision relates to the financial services sector and does not specifically impact children and young people.
3) What is the likely impact of the proposed decision on children and on their rights? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify any potential positive OR negative impacts and include indirect impacts on children and their rights as described in the UNCRC • Will different groups of children be affected differently by this decision?
There is likely to be no impact on the rights of children and young people through this decision.
4) Is a full Children’s Rights Impact Assessment required? If you have identified impacts on children and their rights, a full CRIA should be completed. If no impacts are identified then a Full CRIA is not required, but please explain your rationale and how you reached this conclusion
No, for the reasons outlined above this amendment would have no specific impact on children and young people.
