

It seems out of kilter to spend this amount of money on one project. I appreciate that we need a new hospital but it needs to be proportional to an island with a population of 110,000.