514/18(8)	 Members considered a submission from Parsons Brinckerhoff consultants to act as advisers to the review. It was agreed that as PB had previously carried out work for the department they would be a good choice, provided there was no conflict of interest It was agreed to inform the department in advance of appointing the adviser The officer was asked to take appropriate steps to prepare a contract 	MO MO
	Members agreed proposed arrangements and wording for a call for evidence and media release	MO
	 Questions to send to the department were agreed (to be submitted to the adviser for comments first) It was agreed that a map of built-up areas supplied by department was inadequate as it showed none of the roads which would be affected by the 'no centre line' proposals; this 	МО which would be affected by the 'no centre line' proposals; this was considered likely to include many Parish roads
