DRAFT DAY CARE OF CHILDREN (JERSEY) LAW 2002 (APPOINTED DAY) ACT 200

REPORT

1. Introduction

The purpose of this report is to ask the States to approve the Day Care of Children (Jersey) Law 2002 (Appointed Day) Act 200-, with a view to the Day Care of Children (Jersey) Law 2002 coming into force on 1st August 2005.

2. Background

The Day Care of Children (Jersey) Law 2002 will replace Part VII of the Children (Jersey) Law 1969, and will be administered by Day Care Registration on behalf of the Committee. The Requirements of Registration, which determine the application of this new legislation, were approved by the Committee at its meeting of December 2002, and are ready for circulation.

Any additional staffing demands, because the new legislation requires the registration of Family Day Carers for the care of children up to the age of 12 years, are unknown. However, it is anticipated that these will be managed within the current staffing of Day Care Registration.

3. Recommendation

The Day Care of Children (Jersey) Law 2002 (Appointed Day) Act 200- be approved with a view to legislation coming into force on 1st August 2005.

Explanatory Note

This Act would bring the Day Care of Children (Jersey) Law 2002 into force on 1st August 2005. The 2002 Law replaces previous provisions with respect to nurseries and child-minding contained in the Children (Jersey) Law 1969. That Law is repealed with effect from the 1st August as a result of the Children (Jersey) Law 2002 coming into force, also on that day.
