A2. The Committee received correspondence dated 24th April 2014 from the States Members' Remuneration Review Body (SMRRB) and the amendment of Senator P.F.C. Ozouf to the proposition "Draft States of Jersey (Amendment No. 8) Law 201-" (P.33/2014 Eighth Amendment refers).

The Committee noted that the SMRRB intended to undertake consultation in May 2014 in order to inform its recommendations on elected members' remuneration for the period beyond the end of 2014. The Review Body had noted the amendment of Senator Ozouf to P.33/2014, which proposed the repeal of Article 44, which related to the Remuneration of elected members, in order to remove the current inhibition in the States of Jersey Law on a pay structure for elected members that would allow for differential pay. If the amendment was passed, the SMRRB advised that it would be ready to consider how differential pay would work and would include this in its public consultation. The Review Body requested that the Chairman draw the contents of their correspondence to the attention of
