513/21(8)	1. Report Consideration was given to the Sub-Panel's draft report. The Vice-Chairman and Senator S.C. Ferguson were not present to begin with and the Chairman expressed his expectation that the full Sub-Panel should be there to work on the draft report. The Sub-Panel noted that comments had been received from Bruton Knowles. Amendments to the report were identified and agreed which the Officer was requested to enact. It was noted that the status of the Property Plan was of relevance to the Sub-Panel's review (and its report) and the Officer was therefore requested to ascertain the status of the Plan. The Sub-Panel was advised that the report would need to be distributed for comment on the factual accuracy by 21st September 2009 at the latest. It was further noted that the deadline for any comments would be 28th September 2009 and that any subsequent amendments would need to be made in time for a presentation date of 30th September 2009.	WM WM
513/21(8)	2. Chief Minister's Department The Sub-Panel recalled that it had received correspondence from the Chief Executive regarding potential amendments to P.79/2009 and that a response had been despatched to advise the Chief Executive of the Sub-Panel's position. It was noted that no formal response had been received. The Sub-Panel was advised that the Scrutiny Officer had been contacted by the Chief Minister's Department, however, and that it was apparent the Department was working on amendments to the proposition. The Officer was requested to confirm the position.	WM
