In my opinion, there should not be any competition allowed in our postal service. It is a 'Public Service', & if it runs at a loss - so be it.

It would be disgusting to only have alternate days delivery of post. People expect to have a next day delivery & have a right to rely on it as a Public Service. The Post Office in Jersey has given wonderful service to the public, & it is shameful to treat <sup>(the workers)</sup> them in such a way.
