THE STATES noted that, consequential to the rejection of the above amendment of Senator Stuart Syvret to paragraph 6 of Schedule 2, his amendment to Standing Order 151 that, at the beginning of paragraph (3), there be inserted the words “Save as specified in Schedule 2”, was deemed to have been withdrawn.

THE STATES adopted paragraph 6 of Schedule 2.

THE STATES commenced consideration of paragraph 7 of Schedule 2 and granted leave to Senator Stuart Syvre to withdraw his amendment that for sub-paragraph (1), there be substituted the following sub-paragraphs and the remaining paragraphs be renumbered accordingly –

- “(1) An elected member must register a description of any land sufficient to identify it, which is wholly owned, or jointly owned with another person –
- (a) by or on behalf of the elected member or his or her spouse or cohabitee; or
 - (b) by or on behalf of the elected member and his or her spouse or cohabitee jointly.
- (2) No declaration is required in respect of land so owned which is the principal place of residence of the elected member or of his or her spouse or cohabitee.”.

THE STATES granted leave to Senator Stuart Syvret to withdraw his amendment that after sub-paragraph (2) there be added the following sub-paragraph –

- “(3) An elected member must register a brief description of any land sufficient to identify it, in which he or she, or his or her spouse or cohabitee, has any legal, prospective, usufructuary, equitable or beneficial interest which is not otherwise to be required to be registered under this paragraph, apart from any such interest in land which is the principal place of residence of the elected member or of his or her spouse or cohabitee.”.

THE STATES adopted paragraph 7 of Schedule 2, as amended by the Privileges and Procedures Committee that in paragraph 7(2), there be inserted the words “spouse or” before the word “cohabitee”.
