Report

The Law introduces in the Collective Investment Funds (Jersey) Law 1988 standard provisions dealing with offences -

- (a) the giving of false or misleading information to the Jersey Financial Services Commission;
- (b) the responsibility of members of limited liability partnerships and officers of companies and other bodies corporate for offences under the Law committed by those partnerships or bodies, where such offences are proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of members or officers; and
- (c) aiding and abetting the commission of offences.

All offences are punishable by a period of up to five years' imprisonment, or a fine, or both.

Explanatory Note
