DRAFT TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS (ENVIRONMENT AND PUBLIC SERVICES COMMITTEE) (JERSEY) ACT 200

Report

The Report and its Appendices are attached at the end of this document.

Explanatory Note

This Act transfers the functions of the Economic Development Committee under the Loi (1885) touchant l'administration des marchés publics to the Environment and Public Services Committee. Those functions relate generally to the administration and running of the Public Markets in St. Helier and include functions under the Public Markets (Administration) (Jersey) Regulations 1947.

THE STATES, in pursuance of Article 29 of the States of Jersey Law 1966,^[1] have made the following Act –

1 Transfer of functions

The functions of the Economic Development Committee under the Loi (1885) touchant l'administration des marchés publics^[2] are hereby transferred to the Environment and Public Services Committee.

2 Construction and transitional provisions

- (1) A reference in that Law or the Public Markets (Administration) (Jersey) Regulations 1947^[3] to the Comité des Marchés, Comité or Committee shall be construed as a reference to the Environment and Public Services Committee.
- (2) In the construction of, and for the purposes of, any other enactment, or any judgment, award, contract, certificate or other document passed or made before this Act comes into force, anything that is, or is to be construed as, a reference to the Economic Development Committee or its officers shall, so far only as may be necessary for and in consequence of the transfer of functions effected by Article 1, be construed as a reference to the Environment and Public Services Committee or its officers.
- (3) The transfer of functions effected by Article 1 shall not prejudice the operation of any appointment, determination, direction, instruction, approval, consent, requirement, authorization or other thing made, given or done by the Economic Development Committee before the time when this Act comes into force in relation to the functions transferred by Article 1, but such matter shall, if then in force, continue in force to the like extent and subject to the like provisions as if it had been duly made, given or done by the Environment and Public Services Committee.
- (4) Anything commenced before this Act comes into force by or under the authority of the Economic Development Committee may, so far as it relates to any functions transferred by Article 1, be carried on and completed by or under the authority of the Environment and Public Services Committee.
- (5) If, when this Act comes into force, any legal proceeding is pending to which the Economic Development Committee is a party and the proceeding has reference to any of the functions transferred by Article 1, the Environment and Public Services Committee shall be substituted in the proceeding for the Economic Development Committee, and the proceeding shall not abate by reason of the substitution.

3 Citation and commencement

This Act may be cited as the Transfer of Functions (Environment and Public Services Committee) (Jersey) Act 2003 and shall come into force on 1st August 2003.
