

WRITTEN QUESTION TO THE MINISTER FOR TREASURY AND RESOURCES BY THE DEPUTY OF ST. MARY
ANSWER TO BE TABLED ON TUESDAY 1st MARCH 2011

Question

“Would the Minister advise members whether his department (or any other department) has carried out a study into the total tax take which different household types at different income levels would pay in jurisdictions which could be counted as our competitors, and if so, can the Minister give members an exact reference to this study?”

Answer

The most recent study covering these issues is the Fiscal Strategy Review: Supporting Research paper which is available on the States website at the following address:
