R&O.5/2009.

These Rules amend Parts 5, 12 and 17 of the Royal Court Rules 2004.

The amendment of Part 5 widens the Court's jurisdiction to order substituted service of a document. At present, substituted service may be ordered only if it appears to the Court that it is impracticable to effect personal service. The amendment enables the Court to order substituted service if 'for any other reason the Court considers it appropriate' to do so.

The amendments of Part 12 relate to taxation of costs. They provide for –

- the costs of any interlocutory application to be taxable by way of summary assessment; and
- any award of taxed costs to rank as a judgment debt.

The amendment of Part 17 enables the registration of enduring powers of attorney to be effected by the Judicial Greffier in chambers.

The Rules were made by the Superior Number of the Royal Court on 19th January 2009 and come into force on 1st February 2009.
