

Name: Andy brown

Details:

Like other western countries the bus service should be completely free to local residents with an ID / Social card, and charge all others. This would benefit the environment hugely, reduce traffic and assist in meeting any carbon targets for the climate emergency. Not rocket science