Report

The Trade Marks (Jersey) Law 2000 replaces, with amendments, the Trade Marks (Jersey) Law 1958. The legislation has been revised to take account of changes in the United Kingdom, which introduced a new Trade Marks Act in 1994, and to make provision for developments in European Union and other international intellectual property registration.

The provisions of the Law were debated and approved by the States on 7th December 1999. It was subsequently approved by the Privy Council on 17th May 2000, and registered in the Royal Court on 26th May 2000. It is proposed to bring the Law into force on 1st October 2000.

Explanatory Note

The purpose of this Act is to appoint 1st October 2000 as the day for the commencement of the Trade Marks (Jersey) Law 2000 which was adopted by the States on 7th December 1999 (P.153 of 1999).
