

Whilst litter is annoying and angers me (As to why do people have to be so lazy and unbothered about how ugly it makes the beaches and parks look) I am much more concerned with the amount of smashed glass there seems to be on the pavements and road side as I am cycling, it seems a new pass time must be for passenger next to the driver to throw glass bottles out of the windows! (Very dangerous for pedestrians, cyclist and walkers alike).

Tarnia Laffoley