A1. The Committee, with reference to its Minute No. A1 of 10th May 2016, recalled that it had circulated to both parties its decision in relation to the challenge by the States of Jersey Development Company (SOJDC) to the summons issued upon its Managing Director by the Corporate Services Scrutiny Panel (CSSP), and also its reasons for that decision.

The Committee further recalled that it had decided that the documents requested by the CSSP, or true copies thereof, could be inspected by members of, and officers to, the CSSP at the offices of SOJDC, or its lawyers, during normal business hours from 7 days of the date of the decision. The Committee noted that the SOJDC had requested that the 7 day period should be extended by a further 7 days to enable it to consider its legal position.

Having given due consideration to the matter, the Committee agreed to amend the terms and conditions on which the summons would be upheld, to accede to the request of the SOJDC.
