Note –

In accordance with the meeting dates fixed for 2022 by the Privileges and Procedures Committee, this meeting will continue, if necessary, on Wednesday 20th and Thursday 21st July 2022.

Explanatory Note regarding subordinate legislation tabled at this meeting.

(See Item B)

Article 11 of the Legislation (Jersey) Law 2021 applies to the tabling of subordinate legislation before the States.

Subordinate legislation must be laid as soon as practicable after it is made. Any States member may lodge a proposition seeking the annulment of subordinate legislation; however, to have effect any such proposition must be debated and approved no later than the 3rd meeting of the Assembly after the subordinate legislation in question has been tabled. In relation to the subordinate legislation listed below, this means the meeting on 1st November 2022.

These provisions may be displaced in relation to specific subordinate legislation by the Law empowering that subordinate legislation; and they do not apply to subordinate legislation that provides purely for the commencement of any legislation. Where any subordinate legislation is annulled by the States, this does not affect anything done in accordance with the subordinate legislation whilst it was in force.

Minister for the Environment.

This Order amends the Sea Fisheries (Bag Limits) (Jersey) Order 2020 in the following respects –

- (b) it ensures that the bag limits apply not only to fish taken but also to fish retained (Articles 3 and 4);
- (c) it modifies the limits on taking or retaining sea bass so as to reduce the quantity allowed by a person, or by a vessel other than a fishing boat during the period 1st February to 31st March in any year to nil and to remove the limit on numbers that may be taken by fishing boats so that the only restriction is that permitted under the fishing boat licence relating to that fishing boat (Article 5(a));

Minister for Health and Social Services.

This Order suspends the effect of Regulations 6 to 11, 12(2) and 13 of the Covid-19 (Screening, Assessment and Isolation) (Jersey) Regulations 2020. The suspension removes the powers of authorised officers to require compulsory screening, assessment and isolation of people infected or potentially infected with Covid-19.

The suspension starts on Friday 29th April 2022 (immediately after midnight in the night between the Thursday and Friday) and continues indefinitely unless this Order is revoked. However, the suspended Regulations, and all of the rest of the Covid-19 (Screening, Assessment and Isolation) (Jersey) Regulations 2020, are currently due to expire at the end of 30th September 2022, at which point this Order will no longer have any effect.

It also increases by 2.9% the additional amount of maintenance grant that may be awarded to a student of medicine, dentistry, nursing or veterinary science. This is the first increase in the maintenance grant since the 2018 Order came into force. This Order comes into force on 1st September 2022.

Sanctions and Asset-Freezing (Implementation of External Sanctions) (Russia – Amendment No. 6) (Jersey) Order 2022.

Minister for External Relations and Financial Services.

This Order amends the Sanctions and Asset-Freezing (Implementation of External Sanctions) (Jersey) Order 2021, in relation to further changes in UK sanctions on Russia which were made by the Russia (Sanctions) (EU Exit) (Amendment) (No. 9) Regulations 2022 (S.I. 2022/477 of the UK). Those Regulations came into force on 29th April 2022 and had immediate effect in Jersey subject to modifications, except where they created fresh offences.

This Order extends the existing Jersey offence (carrying imprisonment for up to 7 years and an unlimited fine) of breaching implemented sanctions provisions, so that it applies to breaches of the new prohibitions related to providing social media services, internet access services and application stores to or for the benefit of designated persons.

This Order gives the Minister for External Relations and Financial Services the powers, that are given in the UK to OFCOM, to demand information that is reasonably needed for monitoring compliance and detecting evasion of those prohibitions. It extends the Jersey offence mentioned above so that it applies to obstructing the exercise of these powers given to the Minister. It also disapplies the provisions in the UK Regulations that give OFCOM the power to impose monetary penalties.

This Order comes into force immediately after the midnight following its making.

The Order was made on 3rd May 2022 and came into force on 4th May 2022.

Paragraph (2) provides that the registered person must act with due diligence when selecting an approved custodian; agreeing terms with an approved custodian; or reviewing the performance of an approved custodian. Paragraph (3) provides that a registered person who does so in good faith is not liable for any loss to the client caused by the custodian. Paragraph (4) further provides that a registered person must not appoint a custodian unless certain conditions are met – firstly, that the custodian has agreed that they are acting as trustee and will not part with possession of the property, will hold the property in a way that makes it clear that it does not belong to them, and will every 6 months deliver a statement to the client giving details of the property. Secondly, the custodian must acknowledge that they have no right to retain or sell the protected property other than when the exceptions given apply. Finally, if the custodian is in an overseas jurisdiction the registered person or custodian must disclose that to the client and state the risks arising from that. Paragraph (5) provides that the disclosures in paragraph (4) apply even if the approved custodian appoints a sub-custodian. Paragraph (6) provides that a registered person must not authorise the custodian to release or transfer title to protected property unless it is allowed by the client agreement, or they have the express instruction of the client.

Articles 8 and 9 provide that Articles 19 and 20 of the 2001 Order are amended to replace reference to “documents of title to investments” with references to “protected property”.

Article 10 provides that Article 22 of the 2001 Order is amended to substitute “protected property” for “title documents”. It also inserts new paragraphs (1A), (1B), (1C) and (1D) into Article 22. New paragraph (1A) provides that a registered person must exercise all due diligence when selecting, agreeing terms with or reviewing the performance of a third party to whom a client’s protected property is to be lent. New paragraph (1B) provides that a registered person who does so in good faith is not liable for any loss to the client caused by the third party. New paragraph (1C) provides that a registered person must not lend a client’s property to a third party in an overseas jurisdiction unless the registered person or third party has disclosed that that is the case and stated the risks arising from it. New paragraph (1D) provides that the disclosures in (1C) apply even if the third party delegates to another party.

Article 11 inserts Article 22A into the 2001 Order. Article 22A is a transitional provision, which provides that, within the period of 3 months beginning with the commencement of this Order, a registered person that immediately before commencement of this Order was acting in compliance with Part 3 of the 2001 Order does not commit an offence as a result of the changes brought about by this Order.

Article 12 gives the name of the Order and provides for it to come into force 7 days after it is made.

Note regarding the appointment processes

(See Item F)

President of the Scrutiny Liaison Committee

Standing Order 121(1) provides that the President of the Scrutiny Liaison Committee shall be appointed from amongst the persons who are members of the Committee.

The Presiding Officer will invite nominations for the position. Only the 6 Chairs (the Chairs of the Public Accounts Committee and the 5 Scrutiny Panels) are eligible for nomination. If there is only one nomination, the member nominated will speak for up to 10 minutes followed by a 20-minute question period; after which the member will be selected for appointment. If there is more than one nomination, each candidate will speak for up to 10 minutes with a 20-minute question period. The candidates will speak and be questioned in the order in which they have been nominated. Other candidates must withdraw from the Chamber during the speeches and question period.

Following the speeches and question periods, a recorded vote will be held until one candidate receives an overall majority of the votes cast. The electronic voting system will be used in any instance where there are two candidates; an open ballot will take place in instances where there are more than two candidates.

Members of the Privileges and Procedures Committee

Standing Order 122 provides that the Chair of the Privileges and Procedures Committee shall nominate 3 elected members who are neither Ministers nor Assistant Ministers as members of the Committee. The Chair, after consultation with the Chief Minister, will also nominate 2 elected members who are each a Minister or an Assistant Minister as members; and she will also nominate one member of the Scrutiny Liaison Committee.

After the Chair has made the nominations the Presiding Officer will invite alternative nominations within each of these 3 categories. Only members who meet the relevant criteria are eligible for membership in each category. If alternative nominations are made there will be a secret ballot for membership of the category concerned. In the ballot(s), members have the same number of votes as the number of places to be filled but do not have to use all their votes. The candidate(s) with the largest numbers of votes on any occasion will be elected.

Elected members of the Public Accounts Committee

Standing Order 123(1) provides that the Chair of the Public Accounts Committee shall indicate the number of elected members (being not less than 2) that he or she wishes to have as members of the Committee and should then nominate that number of elected members (who are neither Ministers nor Assistant Ministers) as candidates for appointment. Standing Order 131(1)(b) provides that there must be an even number of members (but not less than 4) and half must be persons who are not members of the States. Only the elected members will be nominated at this meeting.

After the Chair has made her nominations the Presiding Officer will invite alternative nominations. If alternative nominations are made, a secret ballot will be held.

Members of the 5 Scrutiny Panels

Standing Order 125(1) provides that each Scrutiny Panel shall consist of a number of members (in addition to the Chair) determined by the Chair of the Panel, but not more than 5, who must be elected members who are not Ministers or Assistant Ministers. There is no limit on the number of Scrutiny Panels of which an elected member may be a member.

After announcing the number of members that he or she wants, the Chair of each Panel (in the order shown in the Order Paper) will make his or her nominations. The Presiding Officer will invite alternative nominations and, if alternative nominations are made, a secret ballot will be held.

Members of the Planning Committee

Standing Order 125A(1) provides that the Planning Committee shall consist of a number of members (in addition to the Chair) determined by the Chair of the Committee, but not less than 3 and not more than 9. Standing Order 141A provides that the following cannot be members of the Committee: Ministers and any Assistant Minister for the Environment discharging the Ministerial functions relating to planning under the Planning and Building (Jersey) Law 2002.

After announcing the number of members that he wants, the Chair of the Committee will make his nominations. The Presiding Officer will invite alternative nominations and, if alternative nominations are made, a secret ballot will be held.

2 States Commissioners of the Jersey Overseas Aid Commission

The constitution of the Jersey Overseas Aid Commission (set out in Schedule 1 to the Jersey Overseas Aid Commission (Jersey) Law 2005) requires that the Chair recommend elected members for appointment as States commissioners. Standing Order 126 provides that the Chair will make his or her 2 nominations, and the States shall vote on each proposal separately. Members cannot make alternative nominations. If the States reject a proposal by the Chair, the Chair must propose another elected member for appointment. Election as a States Commissioner is open to all members.

2 members of the States Employment Board

The States Employment Board is chaired by the Chief Minister, or by another Minister who is nominated by the Chief Minister to be Chair in their place, and (in accordance with the Employment of States of Jersey Employees (Jersey) Law 2005) consists of 2 Ministers or Assistant Ministers appointed by the Chief Minister and 2 States members who are not Ministers or Assistant Ministers appointed by the States. The Chair will nominate 2 members who are not Ministers or Assistant Ministers for these 2 latter positions. The Presiding Officer will invite alternative nominations and, if alternative nominations are made, a secret ballot will be held.

Members and Associate Members of the British-Irish Parliamentary Assembly

Nominations will be invited from the floor at the meeting for the position of Member and each nomination will need to be seconded (in accordance with Standing Order 102). If there is more than one nomination, a secret ballot will be held. If no candidate receives a majority of votes cast in the ballot the candidate with the lowest number of votes will withdraw from the contest and a further secret ballot will be held. This process will be repeated as necessary until one candidate receives a majority of votes cast.

Nominations will then be invited from the floor for the position of Associate Member. The selection process will be identical to the process set out above.

Jersey was invited to join the British-Irish Inter-Parliamentary Body (as BIPA was known until 2008) in 2000 although Jersey's initial involvement was limited. The history of the Body is available on its website (www.britishirish.org).

The running of the Body and the control of its business is in the hands of a Steering Committee consisting of 3 Members from Dublin, 3 from Westminster, and 3 from among the other participating institutions, led by the 2 Co-Chairs, one from Westminster and one from Dublin. The 3 Crown Dependencies have one place on the Committee between them and this is filled on an annual rotation basis. Jersey last filled the Crown Dependency place on the Committee in 2020.

The Body is funded by grant-in-aid from the Treasury in London and the Department of Finance in Dublin. The day-to-day administration is carried out by 2 Clerks, one from Dublin and one from Westminster, with assistance from several of their colleagues from both jurisdictions.

There are normally 2 Plenary sessions every year, of a day and a half or 2 days each, which provide a forum for the mutual exchange of views between parliamentarians. Each Plenary has a Question Time at which a Minister from the host country answers Questions (of which notice is given in the Programme of Business). Apart from the Ministerial Statement and Questions, the main business is always a debate on a motion on Recent Political Developments.

The primary function of Plenary Sessions is to provide a forum for debate and the exchange of views, while the day-to-day work of the Body is carried out through its 4 Committees: Committee A deals with Sovereign (i.e. East-West) Matters, Committee B covers European Affairs, Committee C is concerned with Economic Affairs, and Committee D with Environmental and Social Affairs. Each Committee has a Chair from one delegation and a Shadow Chair from the other, so that the British and the Irish each have 2 full Chairs. They are supported by 4 Clerks from Westminster and, from the Irish side, 2 officers from the Department of Foreign Affairs. The Steering Committee assigns each full Member of the Body and each Associate to one of the 4 Committees, normally by agreement with the person concerned, and with an eye both to party-political balance and equality of representation from the delegations.

The total membership of the Body at present is –

- 25 members of the Oireachtas (plus up to 20 Associate members);
- 25 members of the UK Parliament (including peers) (plus up to 20 Associate members);
- 5 members of the National Assembly for Wales (plus up to 4 Associate members);
- 5 members of the Northern Ireland Assembly (plus up to 4 Associate members);
- 5 members of the Scottish Parliament (plus up to 4 Associate members);
- one member of Tynwald (plus one Associate member);
- one member of the States of Jersey (plus one Associate member); and
- one member of the States of Guernsey (plus one Associate member).

The Associate Member is invited to attend meetings of BIPA if the Member is unavailable.
