

The new hospital is going in the wrong place. Sites with better road access available.

My main objection is to the outrageous cost. After 40 years in construction industry I cannot believe that such an amount is regarded as acceptable. Another vanity project we can do without. Please explain how hospital build costs are far lower elsewhere.

Tony Gray