

To whom this may concern

I'd just like to show my disgust at the States of Jersey for charging festival-goers extra money to simply police the Jersey Live Festival.

Jersey Live is a respectable, trouble free event that is putting Jersey back on the map... But like everything that is fun in the Island, the fun has to be ruined by pointless kill-joys or money grabbers... No wonder the majority of Jersey's youth leave the Island!

Yours faithfully and constantly disapointed
