COMPOSITION AND ELECTION OF THE STATES: REVISED STRUCTURE
(P.72/2009) – THIRD AMENDMENT

PAGE 2 –

In paragraph (b) for the words “49 members” substitute the words “47 members”.

DEPUTY T.M. PITMAN OF ST. HELIER

REPORT

This very minor amendment needs to be read in conjunction with my amendments (P.72/2009 Amd.(2)Amd.) to the amendments of the Connétable of St. Clement.

The substantive changes I am proposing, in particular the reduction from 49 to 47 members, are set out in the amendments to the Connétable's amendments and this additional amendment is simply an automatic consequential change that will be necessary to the main proposition if my substantive amendments are adopted. Because the above change to paragraph (b) is a consequential change to the main proposition itself, it cannot, for procedural reasons, be included as part of the amendments to the Connétable's amendments and must be lodged separately.

If my amendments to the Connétable's amendments are not adopted, this amendment will simply fall away and not be proposed.

Financial and manpower implications

This is, as stated, a consequential amendment following P.72/2009 Amd.(2)Amd., and the financial and manpower implications are exactly as set out in that amendment.
