The Policy and Resources Committee recognises that a request for additional funding to support the continuance of the States' occupational health scheme, made by the Human Resources Committee at the revenue workshop in February 2002, did not receive support and that as a result, concerns have been expressed regarding the failure of the States to retain such a scheme and the potentially significant financial liabilities which might thereby accrue to the States.

The Committee therefore welcomes that the issue is now being put to the States and that, as a result of the Human Resources Committee's amendment being debated, a States' decision should be made as to its future and, in relation to this amendment, is content to leave the final decision to the States.
