

Everyone should learn that not using cash is feeding in to the massive profits that the banking industry are making, every single card transaction incurs a fee just look at the figures. If I pay in cash the person I have paid in cash can pay someone else in cash. no fees until it goes back to the bank. Schoolchildren also need to be taught about using cash and not becoming dependent on card use which incur charges.