

The money being spent is eye watering, how are 'we' going to pay for it? It doesn't have to be world class, just functional. It is not the States money to spend, we all have to contribute. Tax some of these large organisations over here paying no tax that might be a start.

Lorraine Mclean