

Why is the cost so high, Bristol Brunel new 800 bed hospital has cost 430 million someone is having a laugh and rubbing their hands.

The borrowing plan is outrageous speculative and will burden the island for decades as well as the other grandiose schemes in the pipeline.

Get a grip on this now. The whole saga needs re-evaluating by people that have a sense of what the island needs and can afford.