

I write with reference to your article in this evening's JEP.

Living at the Dunes apartments Greve d'Azette I have to say that the beach here is a meeting ground for drunken teenagers...they litter the beach...play loud music until the early hours and are generally intimidating. I have found bottles of alcohol and even knives outside my patio along the wall.

There should be a patrol along here on a regular basis. Holiday makers I have chatted to are disgusted by their behaviour!!

I look forward to your reply
