

I am personally disgusted in the way this has been ram-roaded through. Our government have shown complete disregard to the electorate. I am sure a referendum would be against the hospital being built at Overdale and obviously causing distress to home-owners there because of compulsory purchase.

Nigel Geary