

Mr Murphy.

* Just a line to voice my dismay at missing the deadline for public views about issues surrounding the Treasury's Department's sale of former J.C.G.

I have no professional knowledge or interest in the development of this magnificent piece of Jersey history but just despair and confusion as to how it can be 'lost' for the price, these days, of two apartments or the old west park pavilion site.

I also seem to remember, say for example just recently SIR WALTER RAEBURN HOUSE, changing hands for 10.3 I think?

Anyway sorry I missed the public deadline was it advertised enough? I'm usually an avid E.P. reader.

Yours
Steve Dowds

P.S. Q. How big is 45 sq miles?
