Ref Back	Agenda matter	Action
03/07/13 Item 2 515/3(20)	1. McKinsey Review The Panel returned documentation relating to the McKinsey Report that it had received on Thursday 4th July. The Panel agreed to request a meeting on 24th July with the Adviser, International Affairs, to further discuss the documents. It would ask to receive the documents again on the 23rd July on a confidential basis in order to prepare for the meeting, returning them to the Adviser, International Affairs, at the close of that meeting. The Panel agreed that at this stage it did not envisage undertaking a formal Review of the implementation of the Mckinsey recommendations, but would maintain an active interest in this area, reconsidering its approach if it so determined.	TO
25/06/13 Item 3 515/28	2. Digital Skills/Digital Jersey The Panel received an update from the Vice-Chairman on the progress of the Digital Skills Sub-Panel Review. The Sub-Panel would be meeting the Chief Executive Officer, Digital Jersey for an informal background briefing on 12th July. The Sub-Panel continued to experience ongoing delays in receiving the draft IT Skills Strategy and a related Ministerial briefing, which the Sub-Panel Chairman was trying to address through correspondence with the Minister, although the Sub-Panel was considering its other options to resolve the matter.
12/06/13 Item 3 515/27	3. Tourism Shadow Board The Panel noted arrangements for an update meeting with the Tourism Shadow Board Chairman on 26th July.
12/06/13 Item 8 515/23	4. Aircraft Registry The Panel agreed to request recent correspondence between the Minister for Economic Development and the Minister for Commerce and Employment in Guernsey, referred to at the Quarterly Update Public Hearing on 4th July.	TO

	It further agreed that after studying the correspondence, it would seek to arrange a Public Hearing with the Minister to address the progress of the Aircraft Registry project.
