

Dear Louise

We are opposed to the removal of 20 hours Nursery funding to parents whose joint income exceeds £75000 as it would penalise these parents, who are working hard and juggling finances to pay for household bills, food and their rent /mortgages.

This is a short-sited policy. There must be other ways to make cuts- perhaps the number of Senior civil servants could be cut instead?