COMMENTS

The Council of Ministers is supportive of the amendment from the Minister for Education, Sport and Culture. Whilst the Council agrees that it is vital to establish a structured group to produce a cohesive plan for the future of Fort Regent, the Minister's amendment for a political steering group is more appropriate and mirrors the structure used to progress other Masterplan developments. The Council is equally supportive of attempts to include representation from the Parish of St. Helier.

The Council of Ministers does, however, acknowledge that the availability of resources is a primary concern to the development of a Masterplan and that progress will be dependent on approved bids being included in departmental business plans for 2011.
