DRAFT LOI (201-) (AMENDEMENT No. 2) SUR L'ATTÉNUATION DES PEINES ET SUR LA MISE EN LIBERTÉ SURVEILLÉE

European Convention on Human Rights

In accordance with the provisions of Article 16 of the Human Rights (Jersey) Law 2000 the Chief Minister has made the following statement –

In the view of the Chief Minister the provisions of the Draft Loi (201-) (Amendement No. 2) sur l'atténuation des peines et sur la mise en liberté surveillée are compatible with the Convention Rights.

(Signed) Senator I.J. Gorst

REPORT

1. This draft Law amends the Loi (1937) sur l'atténuation des peines et sur la mise en liberté surveillée (“the Probation Law”), Article 7(2) of which, translated, provides that:

“(2) The Superior Number of the Royal Court (the Magistrate and the Attorney General having been invited to attend) shall appoint one or more persons to act as Probation Officers (“Délégués”) for the purposes of this Law.”
2. It was true in 1937 that probation officers were appointed for the purposes only of the Probation Law. Today, however, they exercise a variety of statutory functions above and beyond those laid down in the Probation Law. The following Laws have also gone on to confer certain powers and duties on probation officers viz –
  - ◆ the Criminal Justice (Young Offenders) (Jersey) Law 1994,
  - ◆ the Children (Jersey) Law 2002,
  - ◆ the Child Abduction and Custody (Jersey) Law 2005,
  - ◆ the Sex Offenders (Jersey) Law 2010.
3. Reference is made to probation officers also in the Transfer of Prisoners (Restricted Transfers) (Channel Islands and Isle of Man) Order 1998.
4. Hence the reference in Article 7(2) to Probation Officers being appointed “for the purposes of this Law” is not strictly correct and is in need of revision. The purpose of this draft Law, therefore, is simply to effect that revision by replacing Article 7(2) with the following provision (again in translation):

“(2) The Superior Number of the Royal Court (the Magistrate and the Attorney General having been invited to attend) shall appoint one or more persons to act as Probation Officers (“Délégués”) for the purposes –
(a) of this Law;
(b) of any other Law or Regulations or other legislative provision conferring powers on a probation officer appointed under this Article.”.

Financial and manpower implications

There are no financial or manpower implications for the States arising from the adoption of this Draft Law.

European Convention on Human Rights

Article 16 of the Human Rights (Jersey) Law 2000 requires the Minister in charge of a Projet de Loi to make a statement about the compatibility of the provisions of the Projet with the Convention rights (as defined by Article 1 of the Law). On 5th March 2012 the Chief Minister made the following statement before Second Reading of this Projet in the States Assembly –

In the view of the Chief Minister the provisions of the Draft Loi (201-) (Amendement No. 2) sur l'atténuation des peines et sur la mise en liberté surveillée are compatible with the Convention Rights.

Explanatory Note

This draft Law amends the Loi (1937) sur l'atténuation des peines et sur la mise en liberté surveillée to make it clear that the purposes for which appointment by the Royal Court of délégués (that is, probation officers) under Article 7 of that Law may be made include the purposes of that Law and the purposes of any other enactment conferring functions on a person appointed under that Article.
