STATES GREFFE

PROPOSITION

THE STATES are asked to decide whether they are of opinion –

to request the States Employment Board, from January 2023, to publish annually –

- (a) a breakdown of civil servant and public sector worker remuneration across salary bands, to be presented as percentages of government department payroll expenditure and overall government department expenditure across all government departments;
- (b) civil servant remuneration over £100,000, to be presented as a percentage of government department payroll expenditure and overall government department expenditure across all government departments; and
- (c) combined consultants' aggregate remuneration, to be presented as a percentage of government department expenditure across all government departments.

DEPUTY M.B. ANDREWS OF ST. HELIER NORTH

REPORT

I am calling for the SEB to publish the aggregated remuneration of civil servant and public sector workers relative to salary bands to be presented as a percentage of government department payroll expenditure and overall government department expenditure across all government departments. In addition, civil servant remuneration over £100,000 is to be aggregated and presented as a percentage of government department payroll expenditure and overall government department expenditure across all government departments. SEB is to also provide consultants' aggregate remuneration as a percentage of government department expenditure across all government departments.

Financial and manpower implications

SEB is responsible for the publication of the respective data in relation to civil servant, public sector, and consultant remuneration to be reported on a yearly basis.
