  - (b) an officer.
- (1A) A Minister shall not delegate to an Assistant Minister any function the delegation of which is wholly prohibited by an enactment.
- (1B) Where a Minister delegates to an Assistant Minister a power to make an enactment, paragraphs (4) and (5) of Article 26 shall apply to the making of an enactment by the Assistant Minister, in exercise of the delegated power, as they would apply to the making of the enactment by the Minister.
- (2) A Minister shall not delegate to an officer –
  - (a) any power to make an enactment;
  - (b) any power to decide an appeal under an enactment;
  - (c) any function the delegation of which is prohibited wholly, or to an officer, by an enactment.
- (3) The delegation of functions by a Minister under this Article shall not prevent the Minister exercising those functions personally.
- (4) Where any licence, permit or authorization is granted in purported exercise of functions delegated under paragraph (1), no criminal proceedings shall lie against any person for any act done, or omitted to be done, in good faith and in accordance with the terms of the licence, permit or authorization, by reason that the functions had not been delegated, or that any requirement attached to the delegation of the functions had not been complied with.
- (5) In this Article –

“Minister” includes the Chief Minister;

“officer” means a States’ employee within the meaning of the Employment of States of Jersey Employees (Jersey) Law 2005 and includes a member of the States of Jersey Police Force and an officer appointed under paragraph 1(1) of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Immigration Act 1971 as extended to Jersey by the Immigration (Jersey) Order 1993.
- (6) The States may by Regulations amend the definition “officer” in paragraph (5).”

“30 Ministerial delegations to be presented to States

- (1) A Minister who delegates functions under Article 28 shall present to the States a report specifying the functions delegated and to whom.
- (2) A Minister shall not be required to present a report under paragraph (1) where the delegation is so immediate and of such brief duration that it is not practicable to present the report before the delegation ends.

The terms of the delegations, and the legislation under which those delegations were made, were recorded in a Report attached to the Ministerial Decision, as shown below –

The Minister for Economic Development, Tourism, Sport and Culture has delegated to Deputy M. Tadier of St. Brelade political oversight responsibility for consumer affairs (to include all matters falling within the remit of the Trading Standards function) and the Channel Islands Lottery.

The above delegation supplements those made by the Minister in a Report presented to the States on 26th July 2018 (R.97/2018 refers), arising from a Ministerial Decision (MD-E-2018-0029) delegating the following political oversight responsibilities –

- (a) Senator S.W. Pallett – political oversight responsibility for liquor licensing legislation and associated decisions in respect of that legislative development (to include the ongoing development of a new Draft Liquor Licensing (Jersey) Law); the Jersey Aircraft Registry; sport policy and the beach lifeguard service; and
- (b) Deputy M. Tadier of St. Brelade – political oversight responsibility for culture, arts and heritage.

On that occasion, the Minister also nominated Senator S.W. Pallett to represent him at meetings of the Housing and Work Advisory Group until further notice.
