

I'm shocked to see yet another waste of tax payers money repeating a 2009 consultation which resulted in a view that island speed limits were appropriate.

The focus should be toward monitoring driving standards in general, it's not about speed.

Please don't go wasting more money.

Regards

Steve Cartwright