

this is an absolute JOKE the states just take take take no wonder everyone leaves this stupid rock!!! and this is comin from a 24yr old jersey bean..

Events such as jerseylive is the best thing that has happened to jersey in ages.. (tho the states probably think its the lovely brass tree and the pointless steam clock the brings people here!!??) where money wasted on such things could be funding the events. And lets not get started on the stupid banana sign.
£250.000 what a joke!!!! whos pockets did that go into???? i wonder frank?

back to the subject By charging the organiser these silly rates the organiser will have to up ticket prices .. which may i remind you was £85 this year. by increasing the price people will not come.
hense end of yersey live .

EVENTS like these are what jersey is about. dont take that away!!! youll regret it remember BERGERAC IS NOT THE REASON PEOPLE COME HERE ANYMORE THIS IS THE YEAR
2007 IMBRACE THE FUTURE FORGET THE PAST!!!
