

Dear Sirs,

Jersey Live is a fantastic event. However, as it is a profitable event the user pays policy seems justifiable.

I would also like to draw your attention that whilst the States Police receive money for their work at this event, so should the Honorary Police Association towards its training costs towards officer training in recognition for the man hours they put to police Jersey Live.

Regards,

Robert Bisson