

We would like to express our strong opposition to a plan which would double the cost of a new hospital compared to the original scheme to build at Gloucester Street.

In addition, it would mean the destruction of Westmount, a dozen private homes, Samarès Ward, agricultural fields and an historic Bowling Club - this costly devastation could still be avoided if the States had the guts to change tack instead of steamrolling blindly on.

Sue Le Ruez