REPORT

This amendment seeks to ensure that the work completed by both the Right to Play Group, established by the Jersey Youth Parliament (JYP), and the previous work completed by the Play Strategy Steering Group is kept at the core of the development of a formal Play Strategy for Jersey.

The reports and presentations of the JYP Right to Play Group directly inspired and fed into the work of the Play Strategy Steering Group. JYP represent the youth of the Island, and it is critical that their voices are heard. Their work and their views must be incorporated in a meaningful way. This should include ongoing interactions with children and young people to ensure they are kept up to date with the progress of any strategy in this area. Furthermore, they should be able to shape the strategy as it evolves.

The previous Play Strategy Steering Group was led by Chair Deputy Lucy Stephenson and Vice-Chair Deputy Louise Doublet. It was comprised of Government Officers from various departments, representatives from a wide range of sectors (including Government arm's length bodies such as Andium homes), play and nature experts, child development experts, and representatives of parents, carers and children.

The work already developed by these two groups incorporates the most important voices when considering the development of a Play Strategy and is of high quality. It is essential that the work already undertaken is not lost.

Financial and staffing implications

This amendment will not change the financial and staffing implications identified in the previous amendment.
