Background

The Minister for Children and Housing currently has no Assistant Ministers. Considering the current Coronavirus outbreak, it is recommended that the Minister enhances capacity by appointing Assistant Ministers, providing greater resilience over the ability to deliver timely and effective decision-making.

It is therefore recommended that the Minister for Children and Housing appoints Senator T.A. Vallois, Minister for Education, and Deputy J.M. Maçon of St. Saviour, Assistant Minister for Education. Delegation of powers and functions only during a period when the Minister is unavailable or out of the Island.

Decision

In accordance with Article 28 of the States of Jersey Law 2005, the Minister for Children and Housing has delegated all powers and functions conferred upon or vested in him to, including the power to make enactments and all other areas where the Minister has authority to act, Senator T.A. Vallois, Minister for Education, and Deputy J.M. Maçon of St. Saviour, Assistant Minister for Education.

In the first instance the delegation falls to Senator T.A. Vallois, if unavailable or out of the Island the delegations pass to Deputy J.M. Maçon.
