A1. The Committee received a report of the States of Jersey Complaints Board in connexion with a complaint by Mrs. X against the Minister for Education and Student Finance, regarding the way in which an application for student finance was administered.

The Committee recalled that, in accordance with Article 9(9) of the Administrative Decisions (Review) (Jersey) Law 1982, it was required to present the report to the States in the Report series and that the Minister for Education and Student Finance would have 2 months in which to respond to the findings of the Board.
