

Shocking that this vanity project will bankrupt the island. How can this be classed as a great deal when borrowing £800 million and repaying £1.4 billion? With an ageing population and many young people leaving the island never to return, how will this debt ever be cleared? Where on earth do these figures come from? This has got to be the biggest and costliest vanity project ever dreamed up by a "government" which does not and will not listen.