DRAFT STATES OF JERSEY (MINISTER FOR EXTERNAL RELATIONS) (JERSEY) REGULATIONS 201-

REPORT

Background

The Chief Minister made a decision on 13th January 2011 regarding the appointment of an Assistant Chief Minister with responsibility for external affairs (MD-C-2011-0001), which stated that the decision was an interim measure and that the Chief Minister would consider bringing forward a proposal for a new ministerial post at a later date. The Council of Ministers, at their meeting on 12th May 2011, endorsed the proposal to establish an office of Minister with responsibility for UK and International Relations. The Council of Ministers, at their meeting on 7th December 2012, reaffirmed the proposal to create a Minister for External Relations to share concurrent responsibility for external relations with the Chief Minister.

The Council asked that the necessary draft Regulations be referred in the first instance to the Corporate Services Scrutiny Panel. The Panel indicated that the draft Regulations should be presented to the States Assembly as a Report in order that they could be made publicly available and so enable the Panel to undertake their review unhindered by any potential issues of confidentiality. The Chief Minister, in accordance with MD-C-2013-0020, presented the draft Regulations to the States Assembly for information on 11th March 2013 (R.18/2013).

The Panel subsequently requested that the Council proceed in lodging the draft Regulations for debate before the summer recess. The Panel have advised that they expect to publish their report once the draft Regulations have been lodged by the Chief Minister and before this matter is considered by the States Assembly. The Council of Ministers, at their meeting on 22nd May 2013, noted this request, and the Draft States of Jersey (Minister for External Relations) (Jersey) Regulations 201- are accordingly lodged for debate by the States Assembly.

Rationale

International norms

The international norm is for each jurisdiction around the world to have 3 positions in order to conduct external relations. These 3 positions are: (1) Head of State (for Jersey, Her Majesty the Queen), (2) Head of Government (for Jersey, the Chief Minister), and (3) Minister for Foreign Affairs (not at present a ministerial post in Jersey and hence now proposed as Minister for External Relations). The United Nations Protocol and Liaison Service maintain an up-to-date reference list of Governments with official titles of the respective Heads of State, Heads of Government and Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

There is therefore an expectation overseas that, along with a Head of Government (Chief Minister), the Government will include within its Cabinet (Council of Ministers) the important role of Minister for Foreign Affairs. Whilst the role of Assistant Chief Minister with responsibility for external relations has proved valuable and much good work has been undertaken, this is not the same as being able to engage on equal terms with Ministers for Foreign Affairs from other jurisdictions. A Minister for External Relations with Cabinet status will inevitably carry more weight overseas, as well as being more easily understandable to those from other cultures around the world.

The creation of a Minister for External Relations will ensure that the Island fills this current gap within the Council of Ministers and so is able to meet the international norm for the conduct of foreign affairs. This is essential if Jersey is to achieve the best possible outcomes in protecting and promoting our interests overseas.

Improved accountability

The creation of a Minister for External Relations to replace an Assistant Minister with these responsibilities would also improve accountability in a number of ways. There would be enhanced accountability to the Council of Ministers, as a Minister would be in attendance at each Council meeting to account for their actions in a way that is not necessarily the case with an Assistant Minister. There would be improved accountability to the States Assembly, as a Minister would be voted into office by Members and would be required to regularly answer questions in the Assembly and appear before scrutiny as is the case with other Ministers. Most importantly, the creation of a Minister with these responsibilities would provide additional clarity for Islanders in holding their Government to account in the increasingly important area of UK and international relations.

Common Policy for External Relations

The Council of Ministers have agreed a Common Policy for External Relations, as reported to the States Assembly in November 2012 (R.140/2012). The conduct of external relations must therefore be undertaken in accordance with the policy agreed by the Council, whether this policy is being implemented by the Chief Minister, the Minister for External Relations or any other Minister. The establishment of a Minister for External Relations would enhance the delivery of the Common Policy and would help to co-ordinate assistance to other Ministers with a significant international aspect to their respective portfolios.

The establishment of a Minister for External Relations is not intended to change the role of any other Minister with regard to external relations. Nor is it intended to make any changes to the roles of others in the Island, including the important functions performed by the Lieutenant Governor and Bailiff in the conduct of external relations. Lastly, the creation of this new ministerial post is not intended to make any change to the Island's constitutional relationship with the United Kingdom. The Common Policy for External Relations states clearly that it is not Government policy to seek independence from the United Kingdom. The Common Policy also recalls the Framework for developing the international identity of Jersey signed by the UK and Jersey in 2007 (appended to this report) and the creation of a Minister for External Relations is consistent with this framework.

Financial and manpower implications

This simple transition from a post of Assistant Minister to a post of Minister has no direct financial or manpower implications beyond the resources already agreed by the States Assembly within the Medium Term Financial Plan 2013–2015, but would ensure an immediate improvement to the ability to represent the best interests of the Island overseas.

Addendum to Report –
Framework for developing the international identity of Jersey

Following the statement of intent agreed on 11th January 2006, the Chief Minister of Jersey and the UK Secretary of State for Constitutional Affairs have agreed the following principles. They establish a framework for the development of the international identity of Jersey. The framework is intended to clarify the constitutional relationship between the UK and Jersey, which works well and within which methods are evolving to help achieve the mutual interests of both the UK and Jersey.

1. The UK has no democratic accountability in and for Jersey, which is governed by its own democratically elected assembly. In the context of the UK's responsibility for Jersey's international relations it is understood that –
  - The UK will not act internationally on behalf of Jersey without prior consultation.
  - The UK recognises that the interests of Jersey may differ from those of the UK, and the UK will seek to represent any differing interests when acting in an international capacity. This is particularly evident in respect of the relationship with the European Union, where the UK interests can be expected to be those of an EU member state and the interests of Jersey can be expected to reflect the fact that the UK's membership of the EU only extends to Jersey in certain circumstances as set out in Protocol 3 of the UK's Treaty of Accession.
2. Jersey has an international identity which is different from that of the UK.
3. The UK recognises that Jersey is a longstanding, small democracy and supports the principle of Jersey further developing its international identity.
4. The UK has a role to play in assisting the development of Jersey's international identity. The role is one of support not interference.
5. Jersey and the UK commit themselves to open, effective and meaningful dialogue with each other on any issue that may come to affect the constitutional relationship.
6. International identity is developed effectively through meeting international standards and obligations which are important components of Jersey's international identity.
7. The UK will clearly identify its priorities for delivery of its international obligations and agreements so that these are understood, and can be taken into account, by Jersey in developing its own position.
8. The activities of the UK in the international arena need to have regard to Jersey's international relations, policies and responsibilities.
9. The UK and Jersey will work together to resolve or clarify any differences which may arise between their respective interests.
10. Jersey and the UK will work jointly to promote the legitimate status of Jersey as a responsible, stable and mature democracy with its own broad policy interests and which is willing to engage positively with the international community across a wide range of issues.

Explanatory Note

Regulation 1 defines the States of Jersey Law 2005 as the principal Law.

Regulation 2 establishes the Minister for External Relations.

Regulation 3 describes the functions of the Minister for External Relations. He or she shall discharge, concurrently with the Chief Minister, the function described in Article 18(3)(b) of the principal Law. That function is –

“(b) conducting external relations in accordance with the common policy agreed by the Council of Ministers.”

It remains the function of the Council of Ministers, under Article 18(2)(c) of the principal Law, to discuss and agree their common policy regarding external relations.

In addition, the functions of the Chief Minister under various enactments and Acts of the United Kingdom that are extended to Jersey are transferred to the Minister for External Relations. The functions are described in detail in Regulations 6 to 20 below.

Regulation 4 amends the principal Law so as to increase the number of Ministers to 10. These Regulations do not provide for an increase in the total of the Chief Minister, Ministers and Assistant Ministers, which is set at 22 by Article 25(3) of the principal Law.

Regulation 5 amends Standing Orders of the States of Jersey so as to apply the process for selection and appointment of Ministers to the selection and appointment of a Minister for External Relations.

Regulations 6 to 20 amend Jersey enactments or provide for the construction of Orders in Council of the United Kingdom so as to implement the transfer of functions provided for in Regulation 3(2).

Regulation 6 amends the European Communities Legislation (Implementation) (Jersey) Law 1996. Under that Law the Minister may make Orders to give effect in Jersey to a Community instrument where immediate or early enactment is necessary or expedient. Otherwise, Community instruments are given effect by Regulations. The Ministerial power under this Law is customarily used to give effect to Community instruments which impose sanctions against regimes in other countries.

Regulation 7 amends the Community Provisions (Restrictive Measures – North Korea) (Jersey) Order 2007 so as to remove an express reference to the Chief Minister. Consequently, any reference to “the Minister” in the Order will be construed in accordance with the European Communities Legislation (Implementation) (Jersey) Law 1996 as amended by Regulation 6.

Regulation 8 amends the Taxation (Agreements with European Union Member States) (Jersey) Regulations 2005. The Minister has the power to make Orders amending certain dates and the list of competent authorities in the Regulations and suspending or reinstating the operation of the Regulations in respect of a contracting party that has served a termination agreement.

Regulation 9 amends the Taxation (Double Taxation) (Jersey) Regulations 2010. Under those Regulations the Minister has power by Order to add to the Regulations a commencement date for a double taxation agreement.

Regulation 10 amends the Taxation (Exchange of Information with Third Countries) (Jersey) Regulations 2008. Under those Regulations the Minister has power by Order to add to the Regulations descriptions of taxes and a commencement date for a tax information exchange agreement.

Regulation 11 amends the Money Laundering and Weapons Development (Directions) (Jersey) Law 2012. Under that Law the Minister may make Orders amending definitions in the Law, give directions in respect of a country or territory where there is a risk of money laundering or weapons development that is a significant risk to the interests of Jersey and give licences permitting activity that would otherwise be prohibited by a direction.

Regulation 12 provides for the construction of the Nuclear Safeguards Act 2000 as that Act is extended to Jersey by the Nuclear Safeguards (Jersey) Order 2004. Under that Act, the Minister may make Orders giving effect in Jersey to any Safeguards Agreement connected with the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons and may require the provision of information for those purposes.

Regulation 13 amends the Nuclear Safeguards (Jersey) Order 2005 so that, consistent with the rule for construction in Regulation 12, references to the Minister in it are references to the Minister for External Relations.

Regulation 14 amends the Terrorist Asset-Freezing (Jersey) Law 2011. Under that Law the Minister may designate a person suspected of direct or indirect involvement in terrorist activity, with the consequence that the person's assets are frozen. The Minister may also by licence authorize activities that would otherwise be prohibited by a designation.

Regulation 15 amends the Crime and Security (Jersey) Law 2003. The principal function of the Minister under that Law is to make asset-freezing Orders.

Regulation 16 provides for the construction of certain Orders in Council that implement sanctions and measures pursuant to a resolution of the Security Council of the United Nations so as to provide for licensing functions under those Orders in Council to be discharged by the Minister for External Relations.

Regulation 17 amends the Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office (Privileges and Immunities) (Jersey) Law 1998. Under that Law the Minister has power, by Order, to confer specified exemptions and reliefs in connection with an office to which the Law applies.

Regulation 18 provides for references to the Chief Minister in the Air Navigation Order 2005 of the United Kingdom, as it has effect in Jersey, to be construed as references to the Minister for External Relations. The Ministerial powers under the Air Navigation Order are to make Orders regulating the carriage, by air, of dangerous goods, to make Rules of the Air by Order, to make Orders prohibiting or restricting flying, to make Orders regarding aircraft noise and to make Orders designating airports for customs and excise purposes. In addition, the Secretary of State in the United Kingdom is required to notify the Minister before exercising certain powers under the 2005 Order and the Director of Civil Aviation is required to consult the Minister before making directions for airspace policy purposes.

Regulation 19 provides for references to the Chief Minister in the Aviation Security Act 1982 of the United Kingdom, as it has effect in Jersey, to be construed as references to the Minister for External Relations. The Ministerial powers under that Act are to obtain information from the airport operator, to designate restricted zones in the airport, to give directions requiring persons, property and aircraft to be searched before a flight, to require the airport or any part of airport land to be searched and to give directions for the protection of the airport, aircraft, people and property against acts of violence. The Minister has a power, by Order, to regulate air cargo agents, to impose a duty to report certain occurrences, to designate the area of the airport and provide for the calculation of amounts of compensation. The Minister is also liable to compensate a person who is given a direction to demolish a building or works at the airport.

Regulation 20 amends the Civil Aviation (Jersey) Law 2008 so that references to the Minister mean the Minister for External Relations. The functions of the Minister under the Law are to appoint the Director of Civil Aviation and secure resources for that officeholder, to determine the fee for an aerodrome licence, to hear appeals from decisions of the Director of Civil Aviation, to give directions requiring the holder of an aerodrome licence to do things and to make Air Navigation Orders.

Regulation 21 revokes enactments that are superseded by these Regulations.

Regulation 22 provides for the citation of these Regulations and, if adopted, their immediate commencement.
