DRAFT HARBOURS (AMENDMENT No. 41)(JERSEY) REGULATIONS 200

REPORT

Fines for leaving goods and equipment in the Harbour (Quay rentals)

These charges are similar to parking fines.

They are essential for maintaining the free movement of goods and equipment through the Harbour. The Regulations prescribe a free period following which a daily fine is applied to encourage goods to move and make way for others.

Financial/manpower implications

It is important that the effectiveness of the fine should remain and therefore it is recommended that these charges/fines be increased by 2.5%.

There are no manpower implications. Jersey Harbours however continues to make significant economies in its workforce. There are no property or ICT implications.

Explanatory Note

These Regulations increase, by 2.5%, the charges payable for goods left on a harbour for longer than the permitted period. The increase takes effect on 1st March 2008. The charges were last increased on 1st January 2007.
