

The cost is way out of control our children will be paying for this for the rest of their lives.

The location is all wrong with totally out of control compulsory buying of houses and fields.

The cost of road improvements is unnecessary

A more suitable cost effective site should Be found without delay

The worst States decision in history

Michael Stevens