A1. The Committee, with reference to its Minute No. A8 of 30th June 2006, resumed consideration of the proposed survey of public opinion on electoral reform.

The Committee recalled that it had engaged Ipsos MORI to undertake the public opinion survey on electoral reform and in this regard a first draft of the proposed survey was received. The Committee discussed in detail the questionnaire and proposed amendments to the same in order that the telephone survey would not last longer than 15 minutes.

The Greffier of the States was requested to advise Ipsos MORI of the amendments to be made to the draft questionnaire.
