

I believe cash should be kept in the future. If out shopping tills have been know to breakdown, as did happen to myself. I always carry cash and card so it was very fortunate for me. Unfortunately people without cash either had to wait or purchase goods elsewhere.

Also I think people's should be given the choice to decide what they want to do.

Maureen Walsh