These Rules are made under the Service of Process and Taking of Evidence (Jersey) Law 1960 which enables Rules of Court to be made, among other things, regarding –

- (a) service outside Jersey of civil process of a Jersey court; and
- (b) service in Jersey of civil process of a court or tribunal of a foreign country.

These Rules repeal and replace the Service of Process Rules 1994 (“the 1994 Rules”), which have governed these matters for the last 25 years.

Part 1 of these Rules (Rules 1 – 15) make provision concerning service of Jersey process outside Jersey –

Rule 1 sets out the scope of Part 1, and makes clear that it does not apply to matrimonial proceedings.

Rule 2 contains definitions. References to “the Court” are to the Royal Court, and include the Judicial Greffier.

Rule 3 and the Schedule set out grounds for obtaining permission to serve proceedings outside Jersey (in place of the grounds set out in Rule 7 of the 1994 Rules). Rule 3 also provides that, where contracting parties have agreed that a Summons can be served in or out of the jurisdiction in a particular manner, service in that manner shall be good and effective service wherever the person to be served is resident.

Rule 4 sets out how applications to the Court for permission must be made.

Rule 5 concerns service of particulars of a claim.

Rule 6 enables a person served who is not a party to the proceedings to apply to the Court to dispute the jurisdiction.

Rule 7 deals with the method of service on a party out of the jurisdiction. Service must be effected by whatever method the Court directs, if the Court gives such a direction. Otherwise service may be effected in one of the ways set out later in the Rules; or by any method permitted by a civil procedure convention or treaty; or by any other method permitted by the law of the relevant country.

Rule 8 sets out how to serve proceedings in a country under an international convention or treaty. The Summons has to be served –

- through the authority designated under the relevant convention or treaty, or
- if permitted by the law of the country concerned –
  - through its judicial authorities, or
  - through the British Consular authority there.

Rule 8 also sets out how to serve proceedings in a country where there is no international convention or treaty. The Summons may be served, if permitted by the law of the country concerned –

- through its government (where that government is willing to serve it), or
- through a British Consular authority in the country.

Rule 9 (read with Rule 8) sets out how duties of the Bailiff and the Judicial Greffier in forwarding the certified documentation to – so that the necessary arrangements can be made for effecting service in the country concerned.

Rule 10 provides that where a party wishes to serve proceedings in any country where there is no international convention or treaty, the Summons or other document may be served through an ordinary process server, if legally permissible in that country. This Rule also provides, in relation to –

- the United Kingdom,
- Guernsey or the Isle of Man
- an Overseas Territory
- Commonwealth States where the Hague Convention<sup>1</sup> does not apply), that the party or the party's agent must effect service either directly or by another method directed by the Court.

Rule 11 sets out the procedure to for serving proceedings the summons or other document on a State.<sup>2</sup>

Rule 12 requires copies summonses or other documents to be accompanied by a translations, as necessary. This does not apply however where English is the official language of the relevant country, or where service is being effected on a British citizen.

Rule 13 requires undertakings to be given by applicants in appropriate circumstances to be responsible for, and to pay, all expenses incurred by FCO or the foreign judicial authority.

Rule 14 enables the Court to make orders for substituted service, as necessary, to give effect to the Rules.

Under Rule 15 a plaintiff may not obtain judgment against a defendant until the plaintiff files written evidence that the Summons has been duly served in accordance with the Rules.

Part 2 of these Rules (Rules 16 – 23) makes provision concerning service of Documents in Jersey from courts outside Jersey.

Rule 16 concerns the scope of Part 2 (i.e. it applies to the service in Jersey of any document in connection with civil or commercial proceedings in a foreign court or tribunal).

Rule 17 defines “convention country” and “foreign court or tribunal”.

Rule 18 concerns letters of request. The Viscount will serve a document under the Rules upon receipt from the Attorney General of a written request for service that has been forwarded by –

- a consular or other authority of the country (in the case of a convention country),
- FCO in other cases.

The request must be accompanied by a translation of the request into English.

Rule 19 relates to other forms of request. The Viscount –

- may serve a document upon receipt of a written request other than a request referred to in Rule 18; and

Rule 20 provides that the Viscount will serve documents by personal service in accordance; but if the request specifies a different method of service, the Viscount may use that method as well as or instead of personal service.

Rule 21 sets out the procedures to be followed by the Viscount when it has not been possible to serve a document. It also makes provision about specifying the costs incurred attempting to serve documents.

Under Rule 22, where the Viscount has served a document, he or she will return a copy together with a record certifying when and how service was effected. The document is returned to the Attorney General or to the person who lodged the request, if it was not the Attorney General.

The Attorney General can request the Viscount to specify the costs incurred in serving the document.

Rule 23 provides, in relation to letters of request (under Rule 18) that the Attorney General will send a certificate to the person who requested service, stating –

- when and how the document was served or

<sup>2</sup> “State” as defined by section 14 of the State Immunity Act 1978 (as extended to Jersey by the State Immunity (Jersey) Order 1985).

- the reason why it was not served.

The certificate will also state any costs involved, and be accompanied by the relevant document, or a copy of it.
