For the words “the date of the States’ debate” substitute the words “14th September 2015”.

CHIEF MINISTER

REPORT

On 11th May 2015, the Chief Minister approved the nomination of Mr. Markus Hardy Ruetimann for re-appointment as a Commissioner of the Jersey Financial Services Commission and lodged P.49/2015.

At the time of lodgement, P.49/2015 stated that Mr. Markus Hardy Ruetimann is to be re-appointment “with effect from the date of the States’ debate for a period of 5 years.” In fact, Mr. Markus Hardy Ruetimann’s first term of 5 years does not expire until 13th September 2015. Accordingly, the amendment to the proposition clarifies that Mr. Markus Hardy Ruetimann’s re-appointment as a Commissioner of the Jersey Financial Services Commission should not come into effect until 14th September 2015.

Financial and manpower implications

There are no financial or manpower implications for the States arising from this amendment.
