

As a pensioner and tax payer I find it disgusting the amount of money for the new hospital, There are German and Dutch builders with experience, for half the price and half the time to build it, as for the location and disruption ,when there is St Saviours hospital waiting to be redeveloped, with no additional layout for road alterations etc, someone is on a massive backhand.

Peter Touzel